CALL FOR COMMUNICATIONS - CALL FOR PAPERS

All interested parties are invited to present communications proposals to the XII Meeting of the Iberian Association of the History of Economic Thought, which will take place at the University of Évora (Colégio do Espírito Santo) on the 6th and 7th of December 2024.

Proposals are accepted on any topic within the history of economic thought, including topics and authors outside the Iberian geographical framework. Proposals for thematic sessions organized with 3 or 4 communications are also accepted. Contributions from PhD students or post-doctoral researchers will be particularly welcome. Taking into account that one of the anchor areas of the University of Évora is the Mediterranean, communications on themes and authors from this geographical-cultural area will also be particularly welcome.

Communications proposals, accompanied by a summary of approximately 200 words, should be sent to: <https://www.xiieihpe.uevora.pt/en/submissions/>

Proposals for thematic sessions, accompanied by a summary of approximately 600 words, should be sent to: <https://www.xiieihpe.uevora.pt/en/submissions/>

Important dates:

Deadline for proposals: June 11, 2024.

Notice of acceptance: July 15, 2024.

Registration deadline: October 30, 2024

Fee: 120 euros (including lunches, coffee breaks and meeting dinner)

Registration after the deadline: 150 euros

Submission of the communication, which may be in an “extended summary” version of around 1000 words: November 28, 2024

All information regarding accommodation, registration and general program of activities will be provided from September 2024. Requests for information should be sent to mbranco@uevora.pt
